

Board Leadership: From Agendas to Bylaws

Program Overview

Governance is more critical than ever in our changing health care environment. It's important that the board pay close attention to elements of high performance governance and keep up with advances in governance process and focus to best meet both their fiduciary and strategic roles. This webinar will take a macro look at the key pressure points of effective governance that all board members should be attending to. The topics will give participants a means of assessing where their board stands on these elements of topics.

Program Objectives

- Identify the key pressure points of board leadership
- Discuss what should be considered when refreshing bylaws
- Identify key factors of effective agenda setting
