

Physicians & Advanced Practice Professionals: Litigation Update & Hot Regulatory Issues

Program Overview

This webinar will focus on a variety of litigation and hot regulatory issues related to physicians and advanced practice professionals (APPs), including: contract litigation and recent employment trends; trends and update on discrimination and other statutory claims; changes in the NPDB Guidebook and the impact on medical staff decisions; as well as hurdles and strategies to dealing with disruptive practitioners. Attendees will be able to discuss recent legal trends to minimize risk for your organization in medical staff and employment decisions.

About the Speaker

Doris Brosnan, von Briesen & Roper, s.c.

Doris Brosnan is a shareholder with von Briesen & Roper, and leader of the firm's Labor and Employment Law Section, focusing exclusively on assisting clients with employment issues. Brosnan regularly advises health care, corporate and public sector clients on dealing with difficult employees, accommodating disabilities in the workplace, harassment, workplace violence, FMLA, and the development of effective employment policies and practices. She regularly assists clients in preparing and implementing employee transition plans, including employment due diligence in mergers and acquisitions, severance agreements, business closings and reductions-in-force, and business reorganizations. She advises hospitals and health care systems on a wide range of medical staff questions, including credentialing, employment and privilege, terminations and suspensions, peer review issues, and required reporting.
